

STATE Illinois	COUNTY Champaign		TOWN OR VICINITY (NEAR) HOMER. 2½ MILES N. NEAR STATE ROUTE #49	35 1P 5d
INDEX NUMBER ILL, 10-Hom.v.1-	MONUMENT COVERED WOODEN BRIDGE SALT FORK RIVER
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. 25-19	History: Built about 1850 near one of the early trails of Champaign County prominent during early settlement of State and in Lincoln circuit. Description: Long span cross brace construction. WOOD COLLAPSED APRIL 5, 1934
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
2d - PHOTOS  F.N: 7, 37, 38		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

This bridge was measured under the Historic American Buildings Survey on March 10, 1934. On the night of April 5, 1934 it collapsed and fell into the river. Apparently one support had rotted, otherwise all timbers were sound.

Edgar E. Lundeen, Bloomington Illinois
April 1934.